Hog Receipts Yesterday Included All Sizes.

MARKET STRONG & HIGHER

Buyers Sweep the Sale Pens of Everything.

Hog receipts were larger than expected yesterday, and the class of hogs were also somewhat more varied than buyers expected to see. There were all weights from small shoats to large, well finished hogs. Some of the pigs were so small that the pens would not hold them, and when they were weighed and counted and the shipper found his count short, he would sail out in the alleys or some adjoining pen and round up enough to make his count. The lowest price for pigs was three dollars, and the highest price for the top hogs was $10. The market was a strong, quick higher, and buyers were mostly arrived on the late trains, and up to that time there was not much to interest buyers except wagon deliveries, and some of these were moved well up in the column because of their fine quality. When the car hogs began to arrive, Bradley carried his hog stick lightly grasped in the center, and Paine had the front of his broad-brimmed hat turned up in a salute of forty-five degrees. The sellers took the tip that there was going to be a hot time in the hog section of the yards. The hog buyers were like the lawyer that goes forth to gather the harvest and gather in the tares with the wheat in his firm grasp. The buyers scooped everything in the sale pens, and when the market closed there was not a hog, pig or shoat left in the sale pens. The shippers who had the light weights were more than they expected, and the better class of hogs were disposed of at prices entirely satisfactory to owners. Some of the pig weights will seem to be quoted high, but they were good pigs. They had evidently been around the wheat stacks of grain in the corn fields. Shippers are every day satisfied with this market, and well they may be, for Wichita has the best hog market in the west. Shippers can furnish on all the markets from San Francisco, and they cannot leave better than the fair freight for the difference of prices in this and the best markets of the country.

There was only moderate activity of cattle on the market yesterday. The market was about steady for the class of cattle with the exception that everything that was offered for the buyers was sold to the buyers. Cattle have not been able to get as many good cattle as they wanted for several days past. He took the best of the western steers yesterday, but even they were not as good as he wanted. The cowboys and butchers are still after the good cattle and butchers are looking for good cattle. Cattle are in the market like a hot iron, and the time has arrived when Wichita demands more good cattle.

SHIPMENTS AND NOTES.

Anthony, Kansas was represented on the market yesterday by Burdick, J. H. and J. B. Huchingson. The firm had the best of the market and the latter brought place which brought a good price. Henry Schickler, of Newton, furnished a car load of hogs for the market yesterday. He must have been satisfied with his sale. He got all he asked for them. Ed Williams, of Augusta, had a car load of hogs on the market yesterday that were pretty good, and sold for around the top. Among the well known shippers who furnished hogs for the market yesterday were: Adair & Wilson, of Winfield; Ed Cook, of Kansas City; J. B. Huchingson, of Pratt; Lincoln & Co., of Emporia; Townsend & Lamm, of Andover; W. S. Thomas, of Pampa; C. W. Beckham, of Benton; and J. B. Huchingson, of Emporia. The market was a strong, quick higher, and buyers were mostly arrived on the late trains, and up to that time there was not much to interest buyers except wagon deliveries, and some of these were moved well up in the column because of their fine quality. GRAINS ARE WEAKER

Liquidation of Profits by Long Holders

BRINGS PRICES DOWN

Close Is Lower for All Three Grains.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Liquidation of profits on the part of the long holders of wheat and corn weakened the grain markets today. December wheat closing 44¢ lower, December corn 4¢ lower, and December oats 4¢ lower. Provisions closed unchanged to 4¢ lower. Wheat opened strong and higher on a strong cable list. There was a good commission house demand early and December opened 4¢ advanced, at 75¢ 7/8. Prices evened out to 75¢ for a few moments, but at that figure the rush of commission house orders was overcome by a general disposition to take profits. The corn market was active in a similar manner, and when longs in both pits began to sell, and there was no important bull news to support the market prices began to slide downward and at one time touched 75¢. There seemed to be a belief current that the slump was only temporary, and shorts covering brought a reaction at the close. December closing weak, 44¢ lower, at 75¢ 7/8. Local receipts were 15 cars. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 90 cars, making a total for the three points of 25, against the same number last week, and 1,371 a year ago. Primary receipts were only 82,000 bushels compared with 148,000 bushels last year. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour equalled 97,000 bushels. Corn was very strong at the opening, both Liverpool cash and futures being higher. The spot demand here was firm and river points were still seeking to fill their buying orders in this market. This brought an active advance for the member of 4¢ at 75¢ 7/8, and the rice continued up to 85¢. At this figure dealers in the provision pit looked to corn to take profits and so great quantities of it were sold. The market was in a buying mood and took all offered. Later, on the wheat weakness, the corn was put on the market and a sharp decline followed. December closing weak, 44¢ lower, at 75¢ 7/8. Receipts were fairly active and opened higher in sympathy with other grains and on the strong cash situation. There was considerable liquidation in this pit, but in the face of it prices held well, especially for the May delivery, in which there was the greatest trade. December opened up on a fluctuating narrow and closed down, at 75¢. Receipts were 18 cars. Provisions were heavy and dull. Prices were a trifle better at the opening on a small demand for the short account. Hogs were a shade lower and on liberal offerings prices reacted and closed steady. January pork closed unchanged at 14 1/2¢; January lard 10 1/2¢; and January ribs unchanged, at 7 1/2¢. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 100 cars; corn, 15 cars; oats, 15 cars; hogs, 2,000 head.
